Dear Poe Partners,

We're live from Luckenbach Hall! Welcome, and thank you for joining us under the stars for Poe's 2009-2010 celebration "Everybody's Somebody at Poe." Luckenbach Hall has come to symbolize the Spirit of Texas – proud and mighty, hospitable and independent. Texas is unlike any other place you'll sink your boots into, and so is Edgar Allan Poe Elementary School.

The Poe community is the only one of its kind. The atmosphere is one of tremendous creativity, diversity, support, and energy. The Poe spirit is apparent from the front office, to the kindergarten hall, to the temporary buildings; from Ice cream Social to Carnival; and, most recently on the new SPARK Park.

Tonight we celebrate and honor all of these lil' things that makes Poe extraordinary. We also come together to ensure that our school and its leadership have all the financial support necessary to fulfill the grand vision of growth and development. The auction is our biggest fundraiser of the year. Previous auction funds have been used to support the computer lab, upgrade facilities, purchase Smart Boards and build fine arts initiatives. These are some of the very things that set Poe apart and distinguish us from any ole' school.

As you enjoy the shindig, we encourage you to do two things:

1. Contribute as your most philanthropic heart leads you. The dollars raised at our auction directly support the operational needs of our school. Please bid and participate, knowing that your gifts, whether large or small, will be used in important ways. And, please remember to thank our generous donors with your considerate patronage.
2. Relax and have fun! We all live such busy lives. Tonight, let's set that all down and enjoy the many things and many friends, old and new, that make our school unique.

Poe is a very special place, where we are blessed with so many of our own stars. Whoa, Nelly, how many of those stars did it take to pull off this shindig? Tonight is a culmination of YOUR hard work – whether as a teacher, support staff, administrator, donor, volunteer, grandparent, friend, or parent. YOU are a star, and you are making a difference in all of our lives. For that, we are grateful. In the words of the iconic Willie Nelson, "I'm proud to be one of you."

So...kick up your heels and shine brightly for our kids and our community!

★Volunteers★

A great big, Texas-sized THANK YOU to all the volunteers who make this event, and our school shine. We can't begin to list every one of the tireless family volunteers who are homeroom parents, class project coordinators, wine raffle donors, socials hosts, in-kind, donors and solicitors on behalf of our school. Or how can we possibly mention every one of our beloved faculty volunteers, who host socials and give immeasurable personal hours and talents on and off campus? The Poe family also enjoys the support of a larger community, who has freely offered goods, services and counsel without asking for anything in return.

Please know that our hats are off to you ALL, as well as those contributors whose items or energies were received after the catalog print deadline. Poe will continue to thrive because of you. "Hope you enjoyed your stay. Y'all come back now, ya' hear?"

#6 Waaaay East of the Border (Cognac, France!)

Waaaay East of the Border (Cognac, France!): It might not be Texas, but you can't beat the French countryside for an awesome vacation. Your trip will begin with round-trip airfare on Continental Airlines to Europe. Once in France, the highlight of your trip will be a unique, VIP behind-the-scenes tour of the historic Hennessy winery in Cognac, France. In the mid-18th century, Richard Hennessy, the youngest son of Ireland's Lord of Ballymacmoy, joined the French Army's Irish regiment. After distinguishing himself in battle, he retired from the army and settled in Cognac, captivated by the gentle light and beautiful rolling hills of the region. At the increasingly frequent request of friends and family, Richard Hennessy began sending barrels of aged cognac back to Ireland. Discovering his post-army calling, he founded the House of Hennessy in 1765, using his family crest—the arm and broad axe—as the company's emblem. Demand for the House of Hennessy's cognacs—both abroad and in France—was strong from the beginning, and within a year the firm had become the largest in Cognac. As the world's leading cognac, Hennessy holds itself to the highest standards. The VIP tour of this remarkable cognac house will certainly be something to remember. Lodging and transportation not provided.

Details: Hennessy: Tours available in March - April & October - December.

Tours subject to availability.

Continental Airfare: Two (2) coach class round-trip tickets valid to Europe from the US. Expires 02/26/2011.

#1127 4th - Gonzalez

"Texas Our Texas!" Mrs. Gonzalez' class created impressions of cowboy/cowgirl boots and Texas. Those who designed Texas outlines choose themes to represent what you might find in Texas (longhorns, armadillos, bluebonnets, etc). And those who designed cowboy/cowgirl boots created the ultimate boots they would want to wear! These projects really capture the spirit of Texas! Each student has specially imprinted a tin square with a customized Texas symbol and his/her own brand. The class tins have been mounted together onto denim, leather or rustic paper to create these beautiful and timeless 24'x36' framed art pieces. Don't sit on your spurs or they'll be gone!
